FIRST SECTION.

burn

w and the d of persons ack at this rôle of the all in its officers, and order. rious points, ted, and all div.

urbance oc-

00000

US TO

nalla Visi / 12 mm hand.

Most

OREaried lities

y se-ected

red oak, rnbbed,

elf, top

1.50

traceful, ad and 1.98

, 42x42

s heavy

6.05

able deh: three

7.39

sign, in e maple;

ind two handles,

7.55

y novel panels

ic color-

cabinet

special

Dresser

7.25

nent,

t of 150

3.50

S:

Dc.

.19

.98

.25

98

69

98

49

25c

75c

160

30 ray en-enauamelled

4

92c elled, ge

ARTS

beauti-Give where.

CLOCK.

0000

od

..

3.50

LACE

ate mir-

ON TA

IRON

SUD-

Wern

was

NEW YORK HERALD, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1903.

SOCIETY · WEDDINGS · DANCES · RECEPTIONS · RESORTS · HOCKEY

AT CABINET DINNER Postmaster General and Mrs. Payne Entertain in Washington.

PRESIDENT A GUEST

THIRTY-THREEOTHERSTHERE

Many Other Dinners Keep the Statesmen Busy in the Nation's Capital.

HERALD BUREAU, No. 734 FIFTEENTH STREET, N. W., WASHINGTON, D. C., Saturday. The Postmaster General and Mrs. Henry C. Payne entertained at a Cabinet dinner to-night, when the President and Mrs. Roosevelt were guests. The company, including thirty-four, assembled in the east parlors of the Arlington Hotel.

Mrs. Payne, who received her guests, wore a Paris gown of gray satin, brocaded in pink and blue. With this she wore ornaments of turquoise and pearls. Mrs. W. S. Cameron, Mr. Payne's sister, who assisted the hostess. wore a gown of white satin brocaded in pink, with diamonds. Miss Louise Jones, Mrs. Payne's niece, wore black lace over white silk.

The other guests were the Secretary of State, Mr. John Hay; the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Leslie M. Shaw, the Attorney General and Mrs. Philander C. Knox, torney General and Mrs. Philander C. Knox, the Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. James Wilson, and Miss Flora Wilson; Senator Frye, Senator and Mrs. O. H. Platt, Senator and Mrs. Eugene Hale, Senator and Mrs. Marcus Hanna, Senator and Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, Miss Susan Kean, Senator Spooner, Mrs. Garret A. Hobart, former Postmaster General and Mrs. Charles Emory Smith, Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted, Mrs. Stan-ley Matthews, Commander and Mrs. William S. Cowles, Miss Hitchcock, Major and Mrs. W. S. Cameron and Miss Louise Jones. Chief of Engineers and Mrs. Gillespie gave a dinner to-night complimentary to Mrs. Mcchiler of Engineers and Mrs. Gillespie gave a dinner to-night complimentary to Mrs. Mc-Clellan, widow of General George B. Mc-Clellan. Invited to meet her were Repre-sentative and Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. William Kidd, of Albany; Colonel and Mrs. Kerr, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Van Reypen, Colonel and Mrs. Augustus Tyley, General and Mrs. Kearney, Admiral Harmony and General Breckinridge.

A PHOTOGRAPH BY BARON MONCHEUR.

The above picture is from a photograph of | have lived in Paris and speak French fluentthe Charge d'Affaires of the French Embassy at Washington and Mme. de Margerie, with the Misses Warder, two young women very popular in society, daughters of Mrs. Ben-jamin F. Warder. They are particularly popular with the Diplomatic Corps, as they

Cotillon Is Led by Mr. J. Mont- Countess Boni de Castellane and Mrs. Q H. P. Belmont Are

He Returned Recently from the Philippines and with His Bride Will Go to Fort Keegh.

It is not often that patrictic music is heard as a wedding march, yet the "Star Spangled Banner" was played as such yesterday afternoon at the wedding of Miss Margaret Weaver to Lieutenant Frederick Goodwin Turner, of the Sixth Cavalry, U. S. A., in the chantry of Grace Church, at Broadway and Tenth street.

The wedding was small and there was no reception, on account of the recent death of the bridegroom's father.

Miss Weaver, who is a daughter of the late Lieutenant Commander James B. Weaver. U. S. N., was given away by her brother, Mr. Harold B. Weaver. She wore a gown of white Ringhee cloth, made in the Philippines, trimmed with lace and ribbons. Instead of a reil she wore a white lace hat and carried a bouquet of Roman hyacinths. There were neither bridesmaids nor maid of honor.

Mr. Clarence Van Ness Radcliffe attended the bridegroom as best man. Lieutenant Turner, who was in full uniform, recently returned with his regiment from the Philippines.

The ushers were Lieutenant Thomas C. Wiswall, of the Seventh regiment, and Mr. Henry B. Turner, brother of the bridegroom. Among those invited were General Warren M. Healey, Colonel Robert W. Leonard, Colonel and Mrs. George R. Dyer, Major George W. Rand, Captain and Mrs. Morton B. Stelle, Captain and Mrs. Walter G. Schuyler, Mrs. Henry B. Turner, Mrs. Stan-ley B. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Alen Philbrick, Mrs. Coles, Miss Edith Griffin, Miss Liv-ingston, Captain E. O. Power and Captain

De Russey. Lieutenant Turner and his bride will reside success. The public form of the Princeton players

....

Tigers, Secretly Trained. Win so unawares that they did not know what 15

Taking advantage of the embarrassed condition of their adversaries the Tigers rushed the disk toward Yale's goal. O'Brien tried for goal. The shot was a perfect one, but Stern blocked it in good style and sent the disk to the side of the rink. Larned got in a scrimmage which followed for its possession, and, shooting straight, he tallied. Cheers from the Princeton partisans resounded, and yellow-and-black flags waved rlumphantly.

Ten minutes later Larned again distin-guished himself by getting the disk in a scrimmage and scoring. The half closed with the score two goals to none. The Yale players were so stunned by the work of their rivals that they declined to discuss the playing, but substituted Dilworth for Rowland in the second period. game. The score was 4 gcals to 1. The defeat of the New Haven seven may result in Harvard winning the pennant emblematic of the college nockey champion-ship. Harvard easily defeated Princeton in

With a "do or die" determination the champions took their positions for the second half. Playing up to their best form for several minutes they placed the Princeton men on the defensive, and while the excite-ment was thickest Marcus made a pretty shot on a pass from Oliver which netted a goal.

It developed during the game that the Princeton players had been taking secret instruction from Max Hornfeck, forward of It was Yale's turn to cheer now, and hun dreds of admirers of the blue did so with a will. Yale's enthusiasm was short lived, for the New York Athletic Club's team. Hornfeck certainly ecached his men well, and will. Yale's enthusiasm was short lived, for five minutes later O'Brien made the star nobody appeared to be more pleased than the "Mercury foot" player over Princeton's play of the game, scoring a goal on a shot from the centre of the rink.

ng the point O'Brien e mak

Breckinridge

Senator and Mrs. Joseph B. Foraker gave a dinner in their home, in Sixteenth street, to-night. Their guests were the Italian Ambassador and Signora Mayor des Planches, the Belgian Minister and Baroness Mon-cheur, the Portuguese Minister, Visconte de Alte; Justice Henry C. Brown, the presi-dent of the Southern Railroad and Mrs. Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Senator and Mrs. Russell Alger, Senator and Mrs. J. C. Burrows, Colonel and Mrs. Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. McFarland, former Senator and John B. Henderson, former Secretary and Mrs. John W. Foster, Miss Lucy Kean and Miss Dennison. Senator and Mrs. Charles Warren Fairbanks gave a dinner to-night complimentary to the British Ambassador and Lady Her-

TEA AFTER BADMINTON.

There was a full attendance of members at the meeting of the Badminton Club, held in the armory of the Twelfth regiment, Coumbus avenue and Sixty-second street, yeserday afternoon. All the courts were ocupied and some spirited playing was witnessed. The tea table was in charge of several of the patronesses, among whom are Mmes. Frederic J. de Peyster, William Rhinelander, F. Grand d'Hauteville, Goodhue Liv-ingston, Frederic Sheldon, Frederic Gallatin, Geraldyn Redmond, George R. Dyer and Amory C. Carhart.

VALENTINE PARTY FOR CHARITY

A valentine party has been arranged by the members of the Junior League Dances, to be held in the green banquet room of the Manhattan Hotel on Saturday afternoon next. These dances, by the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hawk, have been held at the Manhattan during the winter, and the surplus funds are given to the Messiah Home for Children, thus providing means for supporting one child. On Saturday afternoon valentines will be sold and there will be a post office for mailing them. The patronesses of the Valentine party are Mrs. Robert M. Taylor, No. 39 West Thirty-ninth street, and Mrs. J. Wells Champney, No. 96 Fifth avenue, from whom tickets may be obtained.

CUTLER BOYS ON THE STAGE.

Members of Their Comedy Club Give Two Plays and Their Musicians Perform.

Chief of the two plays given by the Cutler Comedy Club at its twelfth annual performance and dance in the Carnegie Lyceum, on Friday night, was Sidney Grundy's comedy. 'The Snow Ball!" and it was preceded by a curtain raiser, "None so Deaf as, Those Who Won't Hear." There were in all about a dozen actors, and the parts were all taken nost creditably. The performance was atended by a large number of older people and of members of the younger society set who are not yet out.

There was also a concert by the Cutler Banjo and Mandolin Club, whose members are Messrs, Fred J. Ziegler, Edward P. Alker, Platt Kent, Charles T. H. Jackson, E. C. Kerr, Carver Lawrence, George H. Edsell, C. Lawrence Whitman, John B. Cornell, Jeremiah Milbank, Richard Eggleston. Dudley M. Cooper, L. Spencer Steele, Asa I. Soule and S. Maurice Edgell.

Some of those in the audience were Mmes.

gomery Strong and There Is a Buffet Luncheon.

There was another pleasant meeting of the Saturday Evening Dancing Class at Delmonico's last night. Some bright colored spring flowers and growing plants ornamented the large ballroom, while in the reception room were several clusters of cut flowers. Mrs. Charles R. Huntington, Mrs. William W. Hoppin; Mrs. John Clarkson . Jay and Mrs. John Erving, representing the patronesses, received the members and guests, of whom a large number was present. Mr. J. Montgomery Strong led the cotillon. The favors were fancy painted scratch pads of grasscloth for the girls and hanging strawberry shaped pin cushions of velvet for the men Among the members of the class are Mr.

and Mrs. Henry S. Kip, Mr. and Mrs. Gren-ville Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Pell, Mr. and Mrs. F. De Witt Wells, the Misses Mildred Dix, Frances Irvin, Marie Adele Montant, Ethel De Forest, Isabel Fowler, Arno Schwab, Hester Hone, Anna Low, Ef-fie Waddington, Cornelja Floyd, Adelaide Barclay, Margaret Gardiner, Marion Hunt-ington, Elsie Ladd, Alice Agnew, Helen T. Brown, Mary Ogden, Frances Janeway, Hilda Lockwood, Alice Vernam. of Morristown. N. J.; Gertrude Pell, Matilde Emory and Gertrude Greene.

Also Messrs. F. Gordon Brown. Jr.; J. Otis Post, Gustav Schwab, Jr.; Charles W. Car-penter, Artemas Holmes, Sewall Boardman, A. C. Pearson, Russell Landale, Stowe Paul Prentice, Dongan De Peyster, Phelps. Harold Imbrie, Joseph Meredith, G. H. Hodges, Tiffany Richardson, W. E. Curtis, Langdon Marvin, Walter Schard, John R. Delafield and Dr. J. H. Kenyon. Dancing stopped at midnight, when a buffet supper was served. The next of this series of dances will take place on February 21.

AUGHTER COMES TO MRS. PAYNE WHITNEY

Little Stranger Arrived on Thursday Alternoon, Mrs. John Hay

Being with Her Daughter.

To Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney a daughter was born at half-past four o'clock last Thursday afternoon. At No. 11 East Sixtyfirst street, where Mr. and Mrs. Whitney reside, it was said last evening that both mother and child were well and that the newcomer promised to make a notable addition to the distinguished family of which she is a member.

Mrs. John Hay, wife of the Secretary of State, came here from Washington in anticipation of the event, and is still with her daughter. No name, it is said, has as yet been decided on for the latest scion of the Whitney-Hay families. A most elaborate layette had been provided, and with the showers of congratula-tions have come many hindsome presents from rejolcing relatives and friends.

Payne Whitney, son of William C. Whitney, and Miss Helen Hay, daughter of Sec-retary of State John Hay, were married in the Church of the Convent, Washingtca. D. C., on February 6, 1962. The wedding was the outcome of a romance begun at the Yale "prom" of the previous year. Mr. Whitney was a college chum of the late Adelbert S. Hay, his wife's brother. The house No. II East Sixty-first street belongs to his brother-in-law, Almeric H. Paget, and is occupied by the Whitneys while their own house, at No. 972 Fifth avenue, is being fitted un.

MRS. THAW THWARTS

at Paim Beach.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.] PALM BEACH, Fla., Saturday .- This has been a gala day here, as the Countess Boni de Castellane and party have returned from a trip to Nassau. Mr. and Mrs. Orson Hoyt are with the Countess and they all attended the shoot at the Gun Club this afternoon. The Countess wore a costume of gray cloth, and Mrs. Hoyt wore heavy white linen with coat of linen lace. Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont also went to the shoot. Mrs. Belmont wore a white cloth suit and scarlet hat with white veil. Mrs. R. Dan Douglass gave a bridge party in a private drawing room in the Breakers this afternoon for Mrs. R. C. Watson, of New York. Many handsome prizes were given, and the room was decorated with palms and tropical flowers. Among those present were Mrs. Henry M. Flagler, Mrs. Thomas Kenan, Mrs. Eugene M. O'Neill, Mrs. Frederick Robert, Mrs. H. H. Benedict, Mrs. H. P. Dixon, Mrs. Hiram Bingham, Miss appin and many others. Mrs. Frederick Sterry gave a large tea in the new palm garden off the grill room, and

It was then growing dark the lights were for the affair, which was beautin in every particular. There were about sev yfive guests.

Parasois are the fad here now, and each one vies with the other in trying to own the prettiest. At the pool this morning Miss ay Brown, of Baltimore, wore a stunning costume of white mull flowered with pink roses, a pink and white hat and pink para-

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton G. Dixon, who have been on a fishing trip to the Everglades on the houseboat of Mr. Willoughby, arrived here this morning and will remain a month. Misses Bert and Mollie Andrews ar-The rived this morning from New York and have joined their parents at Croton Cottage. Mr. John H. Shults, of New York, was another arrival.

GAYETY IN ST. AUGUSTINE. [SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.] ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Saturday .- The second of a series of receptions was held in the Ponce de Leon studios last night, from eight to ten o'clock, and was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, of Geneseo, N. Y., who are on their honeymoon tour, are at the Ponce de Leon. Mr. Wadsworth is the son of Representative Wadsworth, and recently married a daughter of Secretary of State John Hay. Mrs. M. E. Andrews and Miss Belle An-drews, of New York, arrived yesterday at the Ponce de Leon. They are on their way to join their family at Palm Parach where to join their family at Palm Beach, where ey occupy a cottage.

Among other arrivals at this hotel are Mrs. Alfred P. Hanan, Miss Mildred Hanan, Mrs. Charles C. Delmonico, William H. Chappeli, Miss Chappe I, James B, Hughes, and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Coe, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. E. Fahnstock, of Newport. and the Rev. St. Clair Hester, of Biooklyn.

Registered at the Alcaza" are Mrs. A. mend and Mrs. Joseph Killen, of New York: Mrs. George B. Woodman, Mr. Will-ium S. Scull and Mr. Horace C. Jones, of Pluladelph'a. Mr. R. W. Fisher and Mr. John Henry

Fisher, of New York, are at the St. George,

HUNTING PARIES AT TAMPA.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.] TAMPA, Fla., Saturday .- Many hunting parties are flocking to the woods in search quail, turkey and deer. The season for this sport closes in a few days.

General Chaffee, at Fort Dade and Desoto making inspection, will return to the Tampa Bay to-morrow.

after March at Fort Keogh, S. D., where the young officer will be stationed.

WOOLRICH-MERCEIN.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.] LAKEWOOD, N. J., Saturday .- News was received here to-day of the marriage of Miss Aline Mercein to Mr. Arthur Hopley Woolrich, which took place at San Antonio, Texas, on January 28. The bride, who is the niece of Mrs. Sewell Sergeant, of Lakewood, made her home, with her aunt for several winters.

Mrs. Woolrich is the granddaughter of Daniel I. S. Mercein, who was a prominent merchant of New York half a century ago. Her granduncle, Thomas R. Mercein, was Controller of New York and an intimate friend of Weakharton Lewing. friend of Washington Irving. She went to San Antonio last winter and there met Mr. Woolrich, who is a young English mining engineer. The bride is an extremely pretty young woman

Mr. and Mrs. Woolrich will make their home in Oaxaca, Mexico.

ADIEU TO BACHELOR DAYS.

Mr. Guernsey Curran, whose marriage to Miss Marie Burr Harmon will be celebrated next Wednesday, gave his farewell bachelor dinner last night in one of the private rooms of the New York Athletic Club.

Among his guests were Messrs. Frank D. Harmon, William F. Havemeyer, John Le Boutellier, James Ross Curran, Hector H. Havemeyer, William Otis Morse, Arthur Curran, Raymond Havemeyer, Stuart A. Young, Arthur Havemeyer and Ross Ambler Curran.

During the dinner there was music by a zither orchestra. Mr. Curran, the bride-groom elect, was graduated from Princeton University last year.

EVENTS IN THE ART WORLD

The Salmagundi Club will hold its annual exhibition of oils, at its club house, from February 14 to 26. The display will open with a stag reception on February 13, and there will be a ladics' day on February 14. Each member of the club is limited to one picture. The prizes are one offered by Mr. George Inness, of $100 for the best figure work, and one by Mr. William T. Evans, of $100, for the best landscape. The awards will be made by a vote of the artists at the stag reception. The American Water Color Society, which, since the demolition of the old Academy of Design has been without an art home. will hold its thirty-sixth annual exhibition this year at the American Art Galleries from April 10 to May 1, and possibly for a few days longer. Pictures will be received on April 6 and 7. The Hanging Committee will consist of Messrs. Charles C. Curran, W. R. Drake and Francis C. Longe Drake and Francis C. Jones. The Union League Club of Brooklyn will open its thirteenth annual exhibition at its hub house with a press view to-morrow evening.

The collection of paintings by Monet, the great French impressionist, owned by the late William H. Fuller, together with a number of Barye bronzes and Oriental rugs and a library, also owned by Mr. Fuller, and the colection of water colors owned by Mr. Clarence King, will be sold at auction at the American Art Galleries next month.

An exhibition of pictures by Mr. Robert C. Minor will be held at the Katz Galleries from Tuesday next until February 21.

There are now on exhibition at the Tooth Galleries, No. 299 Fifth avenue, eleven recent paintings by Mr. Henry W. Ranger. The display is entirely of landscapes, with the exception of one marine, the least successful of the lot, and which, although good in color, shows that the artist has not studied wave hit on the back of the head with the disk had previously been so bad, that 2 to 1 was offered against them before the game. Stuand was compelled to retire for several minminutes later Larned scored dents from Old Nassau, who had knowledge utes. Five of the fact that the team had been especially again for Princeton. Ward, at point for Yale, played a weak coached for last night's game, and who had taken Hornfeck's "tip" that the wearers of game, allowing shots that he should have the orange and black would win, made easy pocket money on the victory. It was one of the cleverest schemes ever engineered by college athletes. Evidence of Princeton's superiority was apparent early in the opening half. Confident of victory, the champions got the disk on the face-off and started off. briskly in the direction of their opponents' goal. Smart checking tactics soon stopped I the advance of the New Haven lads. The blocking work of the Princeton men was

Intercollegiate Hockey

Game, by 4 to 1.

Regular patrons of hockey matches received the greatest surprise of the season at the St. Nicholas Rink last night, which the Princeton team defeated Yale's intercollegiate championship seven in a league

No team over showed greater improvement than the skaters from Old Nassau. They ods of the contest. Their team and interferplayed fast, clever hockey during both peri ence tactics were a revelation.

a recent game.

a surprise to the champions, who were taken stopped to get by him. o line-up: Princeton Yale. Rafferty McClare Starn Ward Hitchcock Gual Point Cover point. O'Brien Forward farcus in Oliver Forward Forward Royland (Dilworth)...Forward -James Fenwick, New York Athletic Ciub.

Fully three thousand persons, the largest crowd ever seen at a hockey game here, witnessed the contest.

The First and Only Complete and Uniform Editions of This Famous French Author in the English Language.

His Celebrated Masterpieces and ALL OF HIS INIMITABLE NOVELS, TALES AND VAUDEVILLES. Translated by Mary Hanford Ford. Preface and Introduction by the Author's Friend, M. Jules Claretie.

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS

have been invested in this work, a sum which far exceeds that expended upon any single publication in the history of the world, except the original Encyclopaedia Britannica. The books are printed from 12-Point Old Style Caslon type, ten tons of which were made expressly for our use. The Cost of the Printing was more than $73,000; of the Illustrations, more than $150,000, and of the Illuminations and other Decorations, upward of $100,000.

Among the artists represented are A. B. Wenzel, Orson Lowell, William Glackens, Albert de Ford Pitney, Albert Sterner, I. A. Keller, John Sloan, E. Boyd Smith, Walter Russell, Jacques Reich, F. C. White, A. B. Williams, Sydney Smith and Louis Maynell.

Paul de Kock has been called the Dickens and Smollett of France. The truth is he was the most fertile and popular novelist of his time; his humor was akin to that of Smollett and Sterne, but there was an in-

Some of those in the audience were Almes. George B. De Forest, Lewis Cruger Hasell, Charles Childs, Oliver Livingston Jones, Co-lumbus Iselin, Hugo de Fritsch, Marshall Lefferts, John C. O'Conor, Auguste Mon-tant, Frederick Schuchardt, John E. Roose-velt, Robert Sedgwick, Francis Dana Wins-low, Dallas Bache Pratt, Stephen Peabody, Waldron Kintzing Post, Clement de R. Moore, Arthur H. Cutler, Henry B. Barnes, Roger Williams, C. Du Bois Wagstaff, J. Nevett Steele and Charles L. Whitman.

IN MEMORY OF ARTHUR LEARY

Miss Leary entertained a number of her riends yesterday afternoon at the Arthur Leary Mission, which is attached to Bellevue Hospital. They were invited to inspect the work accomplished by her auxiliary sewing class during the last year. There was a substantial collection of garments of all de-scriptions, the work of the sewing and knit-ting class, and one of the ladies, interested sent a great quantity of shoes. Destitute patients are well clothed from this store of goods when they are sent from the hospital, and the benefits are also ex-tended to the poor of the neighborhood. The chapel, which Miss Leary built and maintains in the grounds of the hospital, is a memorial to her brother, the late Arthur Leary.

Leary. There was music by Signor F. M. Guarda-bassi and the Misses Kleckhofer. Among those invited were Mrs. W. Butler Duncan, Mrs. Charles M. Oelrichs, Mrs. Henry B. Plant, Mrs. Frederic Pearson, Mrs. José F. de Navarro, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lehr, Mrs. Brockholst Cutting, Prince del Drago, Mr. George C. Munzig, Mr. A. Muller Ury, Dr. Ramon Guiteras, the Rev. Fathers Colton, Phough well and Letellier, and Archbishop Tarley.

EARL OF YARMOUTH

She Goes South and Has Her Eye on Her Daughter and Her

Titled Suitor.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.] FERNANDINA, Fla., Saturday .- The Earl of Yarmouth, whose assiduous attentions to Miss Thaw, of Pittsburg, went so, far that he followed her here from Washington, is work accomplished by her auxiliary sewing still the guest of Mr. George Carnegie, who is a brother-in-law of Miss' Thaw, in his home, some miles north of Dungeness, where home, some miles north of Dungeness, where Mrs. Lucy Carnegie lives. But although Miss Thaw is also her sis-ter's guest, there is every reason to believe the Earl will not be able to continue his at-tention to her, for her mother, Mrs. Thaw, who evinced such disfavor to the Earl's at-titude that she sent her daughter away from Washington on a trip here, simply that she might be away from the Earl, is also one of the guests of Mr. George Carnegie, and it is seldom that she permits her daugh-ter to be out of her sight for long. Andrew Carnegie, who was to visit Miss Lucy Carnegie, did not arrive here to-day, as was expected. It is said a change has been made and his visit will be delayed for several days.

Mrs. A. K. Nimick, of Pittsburg, arrived here to-day on her way to Dungeness, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lucy Carnegie.

liard, of New York, ANOTHER COLUMEIA DANCE. Another college dance will be given by Another conege dance will be given by Columbia undergraduates in their gymnasi-um on Friday evening for the visiting play-ers of the Harvard basketball team. The committee of Columbia students which has charge of the arrangements consists of Messrs. O. S. O'Loughlin, H. A. Fisher, W. F. Allen, H. C. Brinckerhoff, L. G. Spence, E: B. Close, R. C. Megrue, W. J. McLaugh-lin and H. C. Townsend.

CLOSING SALE OF ART OBJECTS.

The closing afternoon's sale of the Yamanaka collection of antique Japanese and aka collection of antique Japanese and Chinese carvings took place yesterday at the Fifth Avenue Art Galleries.

For the 173 lots sold the aggregate receipts were $17,813,50, making for the entire three days' sale a total of $31,483,60.
The Boston Art Museum was again a prominent. purchaser. through Mr. J. T. Coolidge, Jr, the sum of its purchases reach-ing $2,901.
Other buyers were Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mr. Robert J. Collier, Mrs. G. W. Carleton, Mrs. Waiter Bowne, Dr. Partricge, Miss L. D. Blias; Mrs. Vanderpoel, Mr. Robert B. Wood-ward, Mr. G. W. A. Smith, Miss Mary A. Sharpe, Mr. R. Burnside Potter, Mrs. Fred-eric Shildon and Mr. W. P. Bliss.

shows that the artist has not studied wave forms sufficiently. This weaker canvas, however, does not de-tract from the exceeding strength and beauty of the display as a whole. While Mr. Ranger has been recognized for some time past as one of the foremost of younger American landscapists, he has taken a for-ward step in these recent works, which brings him into the front rank. Mr. Ranger has found his subjects in and around Saybrook and Noank. Conn.. and portrays the river banks and fields and hills of the former locality and the streets and shipbuilding yards of the quaint old seaport town of Noank with rare fidelity and charm. With one exception, the low keyed "No-yember, Mason's Island." a delightful study in cool grays, the pictures are high keyed and have a golden glow and delicious at-mosphere. They are full of the semiment of the "Happy Autumn Fields." and, while virile and colorful, are notable for their tonal qualities. The "Sunrise at Noank" and, "A Noank Street" are picturesque com-positions. forms sufficiently. Among the Tampa Bay arrivals to-day were Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Talson, Mr. C. H. Houghton. Mr. R. H. Pratt, Dr. R. M. Whitehead and Messrs. C. H. and E. T. Hilpositions. NOTES OF COLLEGE SPORT

Phillips Excier Academy has chosen its relay team to race against that of Andover at the games of the Boston Athletic Association, at Boston, on February 14. It consists of these runners:--Cook, Buswell, Higgins, Johnson, Leavell and Bunyon. Cornell's lacrosse schefule this sear will include games with Hobart. Pennsylvania. Crescent A.C., Columbia, New York A.C., Lebigu and Harvard.

Columbia, New York acc. Learge and Harvard. Pennsylvania's hockey team, having failed to se-cure a much desired admission to the intercollegiste hockey league, has disbanded. By unanimons vote of the athletic council, Iowa State College has elected B. J. Weters, once the world's champion speinter, as track team trainer for the coming season. Weters is now in Baltimore and will take charge of the work March 1.

dividuality in his work which was shared by no contemporary. For Specimen Pages, Illustrations and Full Particulars Address THE FREDERICK J. QUINBY COMPANY HUNTINGTON CHAMBERS, BOSTON, MASS. Please send me Specimen Pages, Illustrations and Detailed Information relating to your Editions of the Works of Charles-Paul de Kock, including prices of the various editious and terms of payment. Name Street and Number-A compart Town or City-